

4 DIRECTIONS
FESTIVAL

FRIDAY, JUNE 16 @ 10 AM – 2:30 PM DENTONIA PARK

A Performance Arts Event at Dentonia Park on Friday, June 16th, 2017 featuring Asian & South Asian, Latin American, African, and indigenous artists showcasing culturally-diverse traditional and modern fusion hip hop, dance, music, and poetry.

SUNDAY, JUNE 18 @ 12 PM – 4PM REGENT PARK (Daniels Spectrum )

A popular education event on Sunday, June 18th, 2017 facilitated by Community Educator, Jojo Geronimo, on "Globalization, Global Migration, & Indigenous Rights", at Daniel Spectrum's Ada Slaight Hall, a poetry performance from the Wind in the Leaves Collective & Pantayo.

MONDAY, JUNE 19 @ 10 AM – 2:30 PM BROADACRES PARK

An outdoor event at Broadacres Park on Monday, June 19th, with a feast and workshop on the journey of Healing, residential school survivor, Michael Cheena, and intergenerational survivors, Kevin Harp and Charles Abbotsbury.

WED, JUNE 21 @ 5:30 PM – 10:30 PM TORONTO CENTRE FOR THE ARTS

Our festival will close at the world class Toronto Centre for the Arts on June 21st, 2017, with an indigenous drumming performance by Veronica Johnny, followed by a screening of Alanis Obomsawin's documentary, "We Can't Make the Same Mistake Twice", co-presented with

-Hope, and Right Relations-with Lee Maracle

original. indigenous.